Handel's Messiah

Vault of Heaven

Jesu, who some Innocents saw as a deliverer of God Innocent sat on the right of the throne of the spirit of God That Great Spirit of unconditional love, LIGHT.

Even the prophet knew not where to find this heavenly court, only it was in the outer universe, where time and energy began.

The Innocents knew God sent a spirit in the form of a man, Jesu Innocent to Earth eons ago and was crucified by Lord Satan. And believed Jesu physically rose from the dead to go to God's galaxy promising to return.

To overthrow the dragon with a mighty army. All in the Innocent forbidden book of riddles that said there had been a galactic war and Satan lost retreating to Earth.

And the war was continuing.

Innocents examined stars for signs of Him seeing nine. And they waited and The Beast waxed them sore.

Some said God was the mighty war spirit Jehovah or coloured outline of a man in sparkling white linen, whose eyes burned like rubies while his hair burned.

Jesu was no longer human like he was once.

Humanoid

yes.

Lo in reality one throne, God the spirit flowing through Jesu.
And a rainbow, thunder and lightning surrounded it.

And the Great Spirit was preparing an armada to right things, at last.

Meantime using mortals filling them with goodness only as their weapons against evil.

And one of the seven great angels reminded the Great Spirit about Oneghus in the Heavenly Principality of Hesse, ruled by the spirit Prince Rad.

Time Oneghus became Rad's deliver, time Raddite deliverance prophecies be fulfilled.

And Raphael was told, "Help Oneghus start Armageddon. Call the spirit Oneghus Astrod Prince of Hesse."

And Oneghus no longer controlled his destiny if he ever did.

For when the Lamb breaks the scroll, hell the Outer Darkness seeks The Beast and his kind, for there are four spirit horsemen.

A white horse whose crowned rider has a bow. Will with power rip the dragon's empire apart with war.

A red horse, whose rider is armed with a sword. Will make The Beasts subjects kill each other.

A black horse whose rider carries a scale. Will cause famine.

A pale horse whose rider will kill a quarter of The Beast's subjects.

Thus the court of Jesu the man according to the forbidden book.

And Raphael left seeking Oneghus who knew not who he really was,
the deliverer. And outside prayers of the sick waited entry.

"My child has meningitis, save him: and the child died.
